...Fall

the season of aging and dying in the universe but in the world of a Woman's College student it is the beginning—the nucleus of a created woman whose philosophy and ideals change and mature from day to day as quickly as the leaves color and fade. The nucleus takes shape the beginning of Freshman week when the Freshmen, Commercials and Sophomores come into their world and begin the initiation of a new year in a new world . . .

. and then Winter

. . . and our students have begun to mature into that ideal woman we seek for on the Woman's College campus. We settled down and watched our organizations grow. There were great strides of progress. We were growing with a purpose in mind; looking ahead and seeing our campus "second to none." It was a year we shall never forget; a year in which we worked and strived for progress and attained our goal . . .

...Spring

came this year and we looked at our world spread before us. We saw changes in the physical shape of our campus but what impressed us more was the change in our students. They were now thoughtful, mature women; they had lifted and directed their eyes to many new ideas and ideals; and had developed a great capacity for sharing and for friendship. They had taken Woman's College in their stride and within them grew the spirit of this year in our world at Woman's College.

Jackie and Jane

. . . to Dr. EUGENIA HUNTER

Without hesitation we dedicate our annual to you, Dr. Eugenia Hunter. Being our advisor for three years was part of the job; but being our close friend, most helpful critic, patient listener, and earnest believer in our class was part of you. For those unconscious of credits, you spent many of your extra hours being sure we could all graduate. And now we leave. Our thanks we offer you in the shape of this Pine Needles, for yourself when we needed you most.

They are dedicated to service . . .

They always say that Autumn is the most beautiful time at W. C. and, after all, maybe they are right. The quick light feeling in the air is synonymous with the Freshman spirit and the warm colors of fall blend into the hearts of all members of the college community. There is a newness in the air; each year is a challenge and its beginning marks a great step in the life of every student. Relations with faculty, administration and other college leaders are forged and are realized as the backbone of the year. It is now we set our standards and make our biggest plans.

Of all the Autumn happenings, Freshman week seems like it will remain forever in our memories; but how soon the excitement of upperclassmen, registration, classes, housemeetings, dates, and movies move the thoughts of Freshman week out of our minds. We wonder how a large institution such as Woman's College can exist until we hear of all the committees; and then we wonder who has time to serve on committees. Greater University Day looms as the greatest event of the season, and it is. The pep rally, the bus ride, the game, the reception, the planetarium party and finally the dance.

Yes, the fall is glorious. It represents the initiation of a grand new year in our World, the Woman's College.

president Gordon Gray

President Gordon Gray came to us from Washington, D. C., where he served as Secretary of the Army under President Truman from 1947 until 1950. Our new president is not only well known in his own native state, North Carolina, but has gained praise from national and world figures for his outstanding record of service to the Nation. His alert knowledge of State and National affairs are nowhere more evident than in his awareness of the needs of the students of the University of North Carolina: and we can see a bigger and greater Woman's College in the future under his leadership.

. . . our Chancellor Graham and Dean Taylor.

Administration

1952

Governor W. Kerr Scott

Public education in North Carolina has made great advancements under the direction of Governor W. Kerr Scott. An alert and efficient official, he is keenly interested in the University of North Carolina and in its students who will become responsible citizens of this state. Aggressive liberalism and alert knowledge have made Governor Scott aware of the needs of public institutions and an outstanding figure in the nation as well as the state. Our state is a better place in which to live with the prominent individual as its head.

Chancellor Edward K. Graham

Dr. Edward Kidder Graham, fourth head of our fifty-nine year old institution, is one citizen of our world at Woman's College that everyone knows and admires. He is a true Southerner in that he was born in Chapel Hill, and later attended the University of North Carolina. After obtaining his B.A. and M.A. degrees from there, he went to Cornell University, and as Dean of Faculties at Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri, before he accepted the position of Chancellor of Woman's College.

Chancellor Graham, his wife, and three children have made an outstanding contribution to the Woman's College community during their two years here. They all live up to Dr. Graham's evaluation of the W. C. spirit—Independent, Informal, and very Idealistic.

Dean of Students Katherine Taylor

Through her position as Dean of Students, Miss Katherine Taylor is known to every student at Woman's College, and here she is a part of all phases of our school life. As a former member of the faculty, she is well qualified to advise on scholastic matters, and at pre-school conference she is called upon for advice on the numerous problems and questions which arise there. In addition to her many other duties, she is a popular speaker and places herself at the student's disposal for consultations or just friendly chats. Miss Taylor works with class advisers and counselors on social activities and in every school function she coordinates faculty and students action with the best results.

GOVERNOR W. KERR SCOTT

W. C. Administration 1952

Our world at Woman's College has competent, alert leaders who guide the students and plan for their needs. This world into which each new student steps is the result of days, months and years of planning and hard work on the part of the administration of the college.

The many new, modern buildings on campus are a realization of the hopes and dreams of the administration. They are forever looking ahead to the betterment and growth of the college.

President Gordon Gray, Chancellor Edward Graham, Jr., and Dean of Students Katherine Taylor head the administration of Woman's College. Working with these, however, are the many faculty members who are so necessary for the welfare of the college.

Yes, the administration of Woman's College favors a happy and progressive student body, and many new plans are being made for future years.

Administrative foresight, planning, and practice have started for the Woman's College a program of General Education which will offer the students a broader educational scope. Concentrated efforts on the parts of the administrative leaders and faculty have made this program not a dream but an ensuing reality.

The Alumnae Association extends a cordial welcome to its newest members, the Class of 1952; and we invite you to enjoy the privileges that go with active membership.

Through our Association we maintain our contact with the College and with each other. Through our active support of the Association, we find deep personal satisfaction as partners in the future of Woman's College.

Mr. Ivey

MISS HELEN INGRAHAM — Biology Department

B.S., 1918 (Knox College); M.S., 1921 (University of Chicago); (Bryn Mawr).

With the completion of the new wing in the Science Building, Miss Ingraham has more room to develop her growing department. She serves on the Steering Committee of the Curriculum Committee, and the Library Committee. She has served as faculty advisor of the Golden Chain.

Miss Ingraham

DR. VANCE T. LITTLEJOHN — Business Education Department

B.A., B.S., 1931 (Bowling Green College of Commerce); M.Ed., 1935, Ph.D., 1948 (Pittsburgh).

Dr. Littlejohn has helped to advance the Business Education Department on campus and he is widely known author of articles on business education. He is an active member of the N.E.A. Commercial Education Department, and the Executive Board of the National Association of Business Teachers Training Institutes.

Dr. Littlejohn

MISS FLORENCE SCHAEFFER — Chemistry Department

B.A., 1920 (Barnard); M.A., 1922 (Mount Holyoke); (University of Chicago); (Yale).

Miss Schaeffer works on the Steering Committee of the American Chemical Society and she has written articles for their journal. Thus she is well informed in her field of chemistry. Being on the Curriculum and Honors Work Committees, plus her department work, keeps Miss Schaeffer quite busy.

Miss Schaeffer

DR. LEONARD B. HURLEY — English Department

B.A., 1913, M.A., 1916 (Duke); Ph.D., 1932 (North Carolina).

Well-known as an author of English books, including the Outline of English Literature, Nelson's College Caravan, and Outline of the English Novel, Dr. Hurley is a favorite in the English department. He serves on the Administrative Council of the University of North Carolina, and the Arts Forum Committee.

Dr. Hurley

DR. EDNA ARUNDEL — Geography Department

B.A., 1921 (Ohio University); M.A., 1929 (Columbia); Ph.D., 1942 (Yale).

Several publications of Dr. Arundel's essay, Earth and Man, have been printed, and she has also served on the Advisory, Academic, Personnel, and Curriculum Committees at W. C.

Dr. Arundel

Department

DR. WILLIAM R. BARRETT — German Department

B.A., 1939 (Citadel); M.A., 1940 (Duke); Ph.D., 1948 (North Carolina); (University of Michigan).

The Monograph, The Germanic Aoust-Present u-verbs was written by Dr. Barrett of W. C.'s German Department. He is well thought of by students in and out of his classes. For hobbies, Dr. Barrett enjoys hunting and fishing.

Dr. Barrett

DR. WARREN ASHBY — Philosophy Department

A.B., 1939 (Marysville); B.D., 1942, Ph.D., 1949 (Yale).

Dr. Ashby has a firm background for his work in the Philosophy Department. He was once a Methodist minister, but he has been a teacher for a number of years. Dr. Ashby is especially interested in the study of ethics.

Dr. Ashby

MISS ETHEL L. MARTUS — Physical Education Department

A.B., 1929 (Pembroke College); (Brown University); M.S., 1931 (Wellesly).

The new gym and the growing Physical Education Department are a great pride to Miss Martus, the department head. Besides her work in the gym, Miss Martus is an active member of many committees and associations. She also finds time for her hobbies of photography and painting.

Miss Martus

DR. ANNA JOYCE REARDON — Physics Department

B.A., 1930 (College of St. Teresa); M.S., 1933, Ph.D., 1937 (St. Louis).

Under Dr. Reardon's leadership, the Physics Department at W. C. has made great advancements. She teaches a course in photography which each year grows in popularity. Dr. Reardon is a member of the Woodenhall Scholarship Committee and the Screening Committee for the Fulbright Scholarship.

Dr. Reardon

DR. JAMES ALBERT HIGHSMITH — Psychology Department

B.A., 1910, M.A., 1915 (North Carolina); Ph.D., 1923 (George Peabody).

Psychology always rates top priority in the conversation of Woman's College students due to the active part Dr. Highsmith plays in presenting his subject matter to the students. He is very aware of the advancements in his field and continuously keeps abreast of the times. He has contributed many articles to professional journals such as "The Journal of Applied Psychology."

DR. FRANK A. LAINE — Art Department

B.A., 1939 (Mercer); M.A., Ph.D., 1949 (Vanderbilt)

Classical Civilization is one of the newest and most widely growing departments at W. C. Dr. Laine brought the interest of this course to this campus, and he has become a well-known department head. He is a member of the Classical Association of the Mid West and the South and of Pi Sigma, Lambda Sigma Phi, language and classical organizations.

MR. GEORGE M. JOYCE — Commerce Department

B.S., 1930 (Indiana State Teachers); M.S., 1935 (Indiana); (Pittsburgh)

Each year the commercial classes at W. C. as well prepared after completion of the one year in Mr. Joyce's department. Besides his department work, he is the college auditor and a member of Phi Delta Kappa and Delta Delta Lambda societies and the Piedmont Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants.

DR. ALBERT S. KEISTER — Economics Department

B.A., 1910 (Otterbein); M.A., 1911 (Columbia); Ph.D., 1927 (University of Chicago).

Dr. Keister is constantly making his students aware of current world problems. He has obtained national acclaim for himself in his work with the American Arbitration Association and the U. S. Conciliation Service. As past president of the Southern Economics Association he has had articles published in several journals.

DR. CHARLES E. PRALL — Education Department

B.A., 1912 (University of Iowa); M.A., 1926 (University of Chicago); Ph.D., 1928 (Iowa).

For three years Dr. Prall has been the head of W. C.'s Education Department. He has been very interested in a program to improve teacher education and has been putting his ideal into practice. Teacher Education in Service and Problems of Hospital Administration are among his numerous books.

DR. RUTH COLLINGS — Health Department

B.A., 1919 (Pomona); M.A., 1923 (Pennsylvania).

Plans for the new infirmary are in Dr. Collings' mind now, but she is continuing to supervise the present building with her natural efficiency. Dr. Collings has helped to adjust the Health Curricula for Public Schools, and she often writes articles for North Carolina publications. She has served on the Academic and Personnel, Curriculum and Reviewing Committees at W. C.

MISS MEREB MOSSMAN — Administrative Chairman for School of Home Economics

B.A., 1926 (Morningside); M.A., 1928 (Chicago).

Dr. Mossman is acting as temporary chairman for the administrative committee of the new School of Home Economics until a permanent Dean is appointed. Working actively on this committee are Dr. Pauline Keenes, Mrs. Bess N. Rose, Miss Mable N. Swanson, and Mrs. Madeline Street.

DR. HELEN BARTON — Mathematics Department

B.A., 1913 (Goucher); M.A., 1922, Ph.D., 1926 (Johns-Hopkins).

The Math Department is kept wide awake by the department head, Dr. Barton. She is constantly offering new ideas to her field by contributing to magazines and professional journals. On campus, Dr. Barton is active on the Advisory Committee.

DR. WINFIELD S. BARNEY — Romance Language Department

B.A., 1905 (Dartmouth); M.A., 1911 (Hobart); Ph.D., 1916 (Syracuse).

The head of our Romance Language Department is very busy both in campus activities and in national organizations on his field. Dr. Barney is a member of the Modern Language Association of America, and he has been President of the South Atlantic Modern Language Association. In 1940 he wrote a textbook, Practical French Review Grammar, and has edited numerous other works.

DEAN H. HUGH ALTVATER — School of Music

B.A., 1920, Mus.M., 1929 (Michigan); Mus.M., 1925 (Southwestern).

The Music Department is one of the largest at W. C., and Dean Altvater is well known throughout the state, as well as on campus, for his work in the department. He is conductor of the Greensboro Orchestra and Community Choir, and also a life member of the North Carolina Music Association in recognition of his years of service for them.

MR. GLENN R. JOHNSON — Sociology Department

B.S., 1915 (Reed); M.A., 1916 (Columbia).

The progress of the Sociology Department is due to the wise and patient direction of its head, Mr. Johnson. He is very interested in the further development of his department. Mr. Johnson is known for his work on the North Carolina Conference of Social Service and the Guilford County Inter-Racial Commission.

MISS LOUISE B. ALEXANDER — History Department

B.A., 1907 (Presbyterian College).

Miss Alexander took over as acting head of the History Department in 1951. Miss Alexander is a favorite of all students and it has often been said that you should not graduate from the Woman's College until you have taken one of Miss Alex's courses. She is very active in local, state, and national politics. One of the many honors bestowed on her was the first Max Gardner Award in 1949.

W. C. House Presidents

Our World's Best Combination—our house presidents and counselors. They give us priceless memories of W. C. the friendly chats, the times when the counselors becomes "one of the girls" and appears at a birthday party in her pajamas, the helpful advice with our personal problems, the planning of dorm parties, the house president doing a tap dance for the talent show, the badly-needed "pep talks" just before exams, those call downs for forgetting to sign in—all reminders of our house leaders.

Who brings us all the latest news on campus and keeps us informed about the newest rules and regulations? Who softly whispers "Judy Board" in our sensitive ears when we don't conform to those rules?

Who comforts us in our times of unsats or maybe scolds a bit for that bridge game the night before our Biology practical? These angels of mercy are our counselors, and without them there would be no unity in the residence halls. The first to congratulate on that sparkling diamond, the last to leave when we need them most. Our counselors smile bravely through the loudest "uke" serenade in the parlor, the crowded dances, and the biggest messes in the kitchen after a spaghetti supper. The tears and laughter of the entire year are shared by counselors who stand by us and in their own words "enjoy" it as much as we do.

W. C. House Presidents

The well-liked House President, whose endless duties include checking the permission slips, blinking the lights at five minutes 'til twelve on Saturday night, scolding the dates for bringing "her girls" in late, and trying to make house meetings as short as possible, is everybody's "big sister." She reminds us about the honor policy and the penalty for breaking rules. She worries with us and about us, gives advice on teachers and courses, and finds the night watchman when a fuse is blown. The things she does are really too numerous to list, but every WC-ite realizes and appreciates them beyond words. It wouldn't be college without dorm life and dorm life wouldn't be complete without House Presidents!

Dorm life—forgetting to file a permission slip and dreading the inevitable hall board, the "food-from-home," parties at midnight, learning the latest boy's footsteps on the walk, shouts of "Anyone want to play bridge?" the rush to borrow a mop and dust cloth ten minutes ahead of Mrs. Starnes, the rainy Sunday parlor dates when you had planned a picnic in the mountains, the race to answer that call from Davidson, the oohs and aahs when your next door neighbor gets a new evening dress, swapping dances for the class formal, the envious green eyes when a new fraternity pin appears on the hall, the last minute cramming for a forgotten quiz, and the vain efforts to get "Our Best To You."

nd Counselors . . . 1952

. . . and the joyful shouts when your roommate gets a letter from that cute blind date, the lazy Saturdays spent sitting by the radio praying for Duke to win a football game, the smoke filled rooms and the unheard phonograph, the unfinished argyles meant for Bill's birthday, bumming cigarettes and the everlasting problem of being broke, trying out your new flash camera, the Friday night date when your term paper is due, the fashion shows before German week-ends, the time you took five girls home with you just to get away from it all, "when Johnny comes marching home again," fifteen coke bottles in one window, and the endless other incidents that make W. C. home.

Come rain or come shine, every girl on campus is duly proud of her college family with Mother Counselor to keep her on "the straight and narrow," and Sister House President to see that all the doors are tightly locked and bolted at night and all the family in and safely snug in bed. Who scares away the burglars and keeps all the pink elephants away from "ye olde campus" and who keeps our morals and morales high—"It's that House President again!" Every girl at Woman's College joins in to sing, "Hats off to the Counselors and House Presidents—We love college and that means you . . ."

This year, as in past years, Student Government officers have worked faithfully to provide a better world for Woman's College students.

June Rainey has headed Student Government this year. She presided over all meetings of the Student Government Association and the Judicial Board.

Vice-President this year was Betty Bullard. It was her duty to serve as chairman of the Legislature and as Parliamentarian at all Student Government meetings.

Lura Clingenpeel held the office of Student Government Secretary. Her office required that she keep records of all Association proceedings.

The records of receipts and expenditures were kept by Betty Robinson, the Treasurer. She also acted as Secretary of the Legislature.

These officers have worked together in carrying out a successful year.

Student Government has held the supreme place at Woman's College for many years, and each phase of its governing program has the highest respect of all faculty members and students.

Every Woman's College student is a vital part of the program, for the students themselves must practice the policies issued by various committees. Thus we have a democratic governing system—by the students and for the students, with faculty advisors.

There are three branches of Woman's College government. First is the executive board, composed of the elected officers.

The next branch is the legislative which is composed of elected representatives. These girls have the power to make all rules, regulations, and laws in the best interest of the student body.

The college judicial board has final student jurisdiction over all major offenses and all fractions of the honor policy.

Each September, before the opening of college the elected representatives and officers of the Student Government meet together in a Pre-School Conference to make plans for the coming year.

This year the Conference voted to establish a Student Government Training Program throughout the residence halls. Also, a large number of faculty members were present at this year's conference, and they offered their further support of the Honor Policy.

Here at Woman's College, Student Government provides a better, more organized college life. The officers, representatives and faculty members only guide the students; for Woman's College is a democratic world.

Judicial Board

President of the Student Government Association, June Rainey, heads the law enforcing body of the Woman's College Government. This Judicial Board handles all student cases except those dealing with suspension and expulsion. The nine members of the board are appointed by the chairman, from the student body.

As the Judicial Board members take their seats at the horseshoe table in the Alumnae House each Monday night, they are completely aware of the democratic responsibility resting on their shoulders. The board is counseled on the gravest issues by Dr. Lydia Gordon Shivers.

This year the board is experimenting with a plan to keep the student body informed of the proceedings. An article is printed monthly in the Carolinian stating the offense and penalty in each case, without mentioning the name of the offender.

Judicial Board holds the highest power on campus and the members realizing this, exact every effort on all matters to uphold their reputation of democratic action. All cases receive long and hard deliberation where every possible fact is included and the student's rights and situation is considered with the utmost care. Each offender knows that her case has been tried and weighed individually by her peers and has been judged with the democratic truths of the Woman's College.

ELECTIONS BOARD

Under the able direction of Kay Parker, the elections board arranges the time and date for all elections and handles the votes. This committee assures us of our right to the democratic vote in the world of Woman's College. Each year we give our praise for the excellent political rally staged by the elections board.

POINTS COMMITTEE

Ann Whittington heads this group of students whose job it is to be sure more leaders can serve in the Woman's College world. It is they who decide the number of points suited to each office according to the responsibility of the office.

HONOR BOARD

Headed by Louise Mooney, Chairman, and Dr. Warren Ashby, Faculty Advisor, Honor Board succeeded in making every Woman's College student realize that she has her own personal code of honor and that it is her own responsibility to apply this code to all phases of her college life. Its ideal is a practical application of individual responsibility and individual freedom.

FINANCE BOARD

Students and Faculty members who are trained in matter-regarding group finances, determined how funds would be distributed among campus organizations. Many times during the year the board is called upon to decide monetary issues that are brought before them by campus leaders. Able and conscientious leadership is provided by Carol Rogers, Chairman, and Dr. Albert Keister, Faculty Advisor.

REVIEWING COMMITTEE

This group plans ways and means for maintaining the best relations between faculty and students. It is of greatest importance that these groups remove possible points of friction to be sure of the best campus relations and the reviewing committee led by Doris Huffines makes this their aim.

CURRICULUM COMMITTEE

Each department is represented by one student on the Curriculum Committee where student views concerning courses are brought to the attention of the Faculty Curriculum Committee. The committee is influential in pointing out the need for new courses on the campus and also for the dropping of others. It is headed by Montae Imbt, Student Chairman.

Greater University Council

The four-year-old tradition of having a Greater University Council consisting of a delegation from State, Woman's College, and Carolina continued this year with its vivacious group planning numerous activities. Established in 1947 the council has worked each year to further strengthen the bond between branches of the State University.

Chief among its purposes is making campus social and academic activities available to the other schools. For the first meeting of the year the council assembled in Chapel Hill on Greater University Day.

Action was taken to improve publicity exchange among the three colleges. Golden Chain has this responsibility on our campus and musical presentations, plays, lectures, and the Social Science Forum are announced on all campuses with encouragement for attendance. Increasing intramural athletics is also favored as part of field day.

Greater University Day

Twenty-five buses packed full of W. C. girls pulled into the Chapel Hill station on Saturday, September 22, in a state of excitement which always precedes Greater University Day. Throngs of State and Carolina boys awaited the arrival, and from there the students proceeded to the long awaited football game.

Gathered in a body in the end zone of Kenan Stadium, W. C. screamed our cheers with State Cheerleaders and then those from Carolina according to our preference. Highlighting halftime were tributes to the three colleges by the band and the colorful card tricks.

At a reception in Graham Memorial Hall, everybody got acquainted and planned to go to the dance held later in Woolen Gymnasium. Late that night the buses pulled out slowly in an atmosphere of contentment caused by the success of the day.

"In The Beginning"

We seemed to enter an entirely different world when we first arrived at W. C. as bewildered freshmen. Everything was so new and strange and so big that we tagged after our junior advisors as if our very lives depended on our keeping them in sight.

Finally, however, the horrors of Freshman Week and registration passed, and classes began. Once more we felt completely lost because never before had we had to study so long or so hard. Rat Day also served to show us just how lowly and insignificant we Freshmen were, and when we received our six weeks' reports, our morales were not boosted one little inch.

But the sun began to shine for us because after electing our class officers, writing our song, and choosing our motto, we began to feel that, at last, we were a real part of W. C.

And there were many highlights of our Freshman year. Greater University Day, the society dances, and that wonderful Freshman formal were events that will ever serve as reminders of the good times we have had. Now we can look back on our first year at W. C. and know that it was literally a year in another world.

"The Deciding Year"

A new life greeted us in September—a life of privileges and responsibilies. We were the Sophomore Class of '52. and we could not believe it. But we soon realized the second year was here and we shouted the class song at the top of our voices: "So it's Rah! Rah! Ye Sophomores . . ."

Through hail and high water . . . then proudly marched the "green hornets" led by Jean Williamson, President.

The settling down process is over, and all the little intimate parts of college life that we dream of come true. Winter often means snow, but the weather does not prescribe the activities in our world nor the feelings of its citizens, for we become alive with the excitement of the constant movement of happenings. Aycock Auditorium literally buzzes as plans for the Social Science Forum, concerts, lecture series, Arts Forum, play performances, and class shows become realities. There is something special about hearing a great philosopher or poet, or listening to a famous orchestra or singer, especially when you know its all yours just at the showing of an identification card that you swear was never you. You get the feeling that part of this greatness is yours and you are a greater person because of it.

The broad view of our world is gained by the inclusion of wide and various social privileges. The Social Planning Council works busily to keep the calendar filled with exciting doings. Class and society dances change the gym each week-end into a fairyland of color and romance. We even wander away temporarily to visit and enjoy the campuses of neighboring colleges. It is all here at our finger tips. The challenge awaits every student to enjoy the broad scope of the Woman's College world.

"W. C. at NIGHT"

It is all part of the romantic mystery of life to be walking slowly down a dark path hand in hand with your someone special. These feelings are not new to mankind, but everyone has his own special initiation into the world of romance and knows no one else has ever felt that billowy, glowing way. College is never complete without those feelings, even if they occur more than once, and Woman's College knows them in a special way because this is a special place.

We speak of developing our ideas while in college but we musn't forget that we also develop our tastes, desires and our choice. It's wonderful to belong to someone and to know that you are secure in your love. Dreams of the future fill the hours and whether it is the man of your highest ideal, or only the boy next door, love on in your world of happiness.

. . . And sometimes we even shared our dates.

Some moments between Harriett Whitmore and Tommy McAllister that only a camera can describe.

Our world, too, has its beauties, when Patricia Passour and Cora Lee Warren get dressed up for that special occasion.

Arts Forum and Lecture Series

Affording opportunity for presentation of student work in the field of drama, dance, art, writing, and music, the ninth annual Arts Forum was held March 13-15. Colleges from all over the Southeast were represented, and experimental work of their students was criticized by the leading authorities of the Arts in the country.

Mr. John Earl Courtney chairmanned this year's Arts Forum Committee, working with Barbara Jobe, secretary and student chairman, and the student committee.

A vital experience in the life of the W. C. student body is the presentation of the lecture entertainment series. Throughout the year artists performed in Aycock Auditorium before an audience of eager and appreciative spectators. These thrilling and enlightening programs by actors, dancers, musicians, critics, and writers combined with the student self-expression apparent in Arts Forum participation yielded the broad cultured viewpoint of a W. C. graduate.

HARRIET ELLIOTT SOCIAL SCIENCE

Harriet Elliott, the inspiration for the Social Science Forum

With the impact of the inevitable meeting between two vastly different ideologies, two cultures long mutually misunderstood, two racial groups living geographically on opposite sides of one world, modern man, so recently exhausted by World War, once more has found his world insecure and feverish. The awakening of the western mind to a "Renaissance" in the ancient East with its recent rise of a violent nationalism, and the rapid spread of Russian Communism, was rude and late.

Last fall the Annual Harriet Elliott Forum, for the first time in its five-year history, focused its attention on a specific area of the world—China—where the conflict between East and West has crystalized. And Woman's College students, vitally concerned with the kind of world that is theirs today, and, especially, tomorrow, participated with a grim realization that their own fate could perhaps depend on the outcome of the present clash between Oriental and Western worlds.

Visitors came into our world to experience the greatness of the Forum.

DR. EUGENE PEAIT
Faculty Chairman

JOAN WRENN KNAPP
Student Chairman

A memorial to our late dean, Harriet Elliott, the Forum customarily brought to the campus four outstanding authorities to lead the three-day discussion of "The Meeting of East and West in China." During the course of the sessions, Hu Shih, Chinese scholar and former ambassador to the U. S. contrasted the cultural aspects of East and West; Derk Bodde, professor of Chinese history at Pennsylvania University and author of Peking Diary, discussed Political Tensions; Harold Isaacs, Far Eastern expert and former associate editor of Newsweek, treated Russia's Influence in the East; and Vera Micheles Dean, research director of the U. S. Foreign Policy Association approached the question of a Reconciliation Between East and West. Question periods following panels and individual round tables were also on the agenda.

With another successful year behind, the Social Science Forum is becoming established tradition with all indications of being an eagerly-awaited experience in W. C. college life for many Autumns to come.

Fun at W. C.

A world of chance is Woman's College, chance to date the man of your choice at the glittering society ball, or chance to attend the Aycock movie with a group of your dormitory chums. If you like, you can be present at the swim meet Sunday afternoon, or if you would rather, listen to the Chamber Music Players perform in the Music Building Auditorium. Many join the Modern Dance group, while others prefer to work long, hard hours on one of the publications. Some visit at Chapel Hill, while you find others will be traveling to State, Davidson, Duke or other local colleges. A world of chance is Woman's College: chance to be yourself and follow your interests: follow your whims, and follow your man.

Social Planning Council

Greater University Day, a Davidson deputation, the fall-spring fashion shows and a talk by a Revlon Fashion Consultant—these are just a few of the many enjoyable social activities provided by the Social Planning Council for W. C. students.

The Council this year is headed by Elaine Holly. On the Council are representatives from each residence hall, class, and the Town Students' Association. Working together to provide for the traditional W. C. fun are the presidents of the four societies, and the presidents of R. A. and Y.W.C.A. There are also three faculty members—Miss Leonard, Miss Suiter, and Mrs. Carter—who act as advisors to the Council.

The Social Planning Council has four principal aims: first, to allocate responsibilities to certain groups; second, to prepare a schedule of fixed programs for the year; third, to manage a flexible social program; and fourth, to bring about greater integration of social activities among the three branches of the Greater University.

Of special interest this year were the inter-hall functions and the increase of the hall social life.

Greater co-operation with the four Societies was also stressed this year on campus. These Societies—the Adelphian, Aletheian, Cornelian, and Dikean—sponsored Rat Day and two dances throughout the year.

Without the varied social program planned by our Council, we would not have the well-rounded W. C. world to enjoy.

Activities

Part of the greatness of Woman's College lies in the vastness of its education. Those students who exchange views concerning religion at Interfaith Council meetings and the magnificent services done by Y.W.C.A. and Service League members give them a fuller meaning of life. Students of music and drama can try their talents in a non-classroom atmosphere. There is broadening of interests and minds in the many clubs and organizations that exist in the World of Woman's College, and only those who tasted of their fruit can appreciate their nourishment.

Town Students Association

TOWN STUDENT'S JUDICIAL BOARD

The Town Student's Association is composed of all the Woman's College students who do not live in residence halls. It functions in much the same way as a campus hall unit and is represented as such in the Legislature. The Association has its own Judicial Board, which is made up of the Town Student's officers and a representative from each class. This board tries all the cases concerning its group.

This year the Town Student's Association is headed by Sharon Newnam, President; Georgia Katsikas, Vice-President; and Joanne Scott, Secretary-Treasurer. All these officers have put forth a great amount of time and effort to make their group one of the most efficient on campus. Its members take part in all the campus-wide activities, and in addition to these, also enjoy the entertainment planned for Town Students only.

SHARON NEWNAM
President

OFFICERS

Sharon Newnam, President

Georgia Katsikas, Vice-President

Joanne Scott, Secretary-Treasurer

Each day the Town Student's room, located in the basement of the Administration building, is open for study, recreation, and rest. Here the crowd gets together for those wonderful "gab sessions" or for that last game of bridge before the next class. There are usually heated arguments too, on everything from the new trend in clothes to Eisenhour's running for president. Knitting also is a favorite pastime, but this hobby sometimes becomes a nuisance because those pointed needles always manage to get in the way when one tries to sit down.

Of course, the Town Students miss the fun of dormitory life, but just think of their many compensations—no Saturday night deadline, and no "no men on campus" Mondays. Their social functions, fashions, shows, parties, and weiner roasts—climaxed by the big formal dance, make the life of a town student loads of fun. The Soda Shop or the Spic and Span is usually filled with some of them who want to grab a bite between classes.

They have their problems, too, however, for parking becomes quite difficult on those days when too many of them bring the family car. But who wouldn't welcome a problem like that? And, the first ones in line at the library for the overnight books are usually the Town Students. But, just think, they can stay up all night, if necessary, to read them.

Yes, the Town Students are a group who go to college without leaving home. Yet, they are as much a part of the Woman's College community as those who come from hundreds of miles away. College just wouldn't be right without them.

Studying and styles.

Just have time for one good bull session.

Young Women's Christian

Holding a prominent place among the clubs and organizations on the Woman's College campus is the Young Women's Christian Association. It occupies the spot that it does because the students themselves feel a need for an organization which offers them an opportunity to discuss their religious views. The "Y" fills this need and many more. It welcomes members of all faiths—Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish—and encourages these members to rethink their faith in the light of changing world conditions. It also helps them to develop personal basic convictions which will provide direction for them for the rest of their lives.

The "Y" of Woman's College extends beyond the bounds of our campus and finds a keynote to its activities in the purpose of the National Y.W.C.A. "We, the members of the Y.W.C.A., unite in the desire to realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God. We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people. In this task we seek to understand Jesus and follow Him." In carrying out this purpose, the Woman's College "Y" unites with others all over the country.

The Y.W.C.A. on this campus is not primarily interested in "programs"; instead, the chief interest of the association lies in the development of the individual. It is the aim of the organization to help each student find herself in her first adjustment to the college environment as a freshman, and to help her develop on a higher and more mature level throughout her sophomore, junior, and senior years. The "Y" is a religious organization and as such operates on the basis that religion is not a mere department of life but an attitude that covers all actions. Therefore, the "Y" is vitally interested in our social, as well as our personal problems, and in the development of effective human relations on this campus. Because of its attitude toward these problems, the organization deals with a variety of everyday activities and interests in the main stream of student living.

Although the Y.W.C.A. does not have "programs" as its primary interest, it does, nevertheless, sponsor many clubs and commissions. There are four Freshmen Clubs, which hold meetings once a month, and four commissions—World Relativeness, Social Responsibility, Personal and Campus Affairs, and Christian Heritage—which the upperclassmen join. These groups carry out various projects which they have undertaken individually. They also serve as means of bringing the students together for the discussion of our current problems, religious and social.

Since religion is a way of life and thought, it has always been regarded as a matter of significance by college men and women. From the earliest beginnings of higher education in America, there have existed voluntary religious societies through which college students have grown in religious life and thought. The Y.W.C.A. at Woman's College is a true descendent of these societies which have composed the Student Christian movement in the United States for many years.

This year, under the leadership of Mrs. Ruth Clark, advisor; and Joan Wrenn Knaup, President; Mary Lena Patterson, Vice-President; Paula Sutton, Secretary; and Alice Clark, Treasurer; the "Y" has been undergoing a reorientation program. Its leaders have endeavored to make the Y.W.C.A. play a vital part on campus in creating and perpetuating a wholesome understanding among the student. Through its program and its work, the "Y" developed personality and leadership ability. The opportunity for responsible and creative participation was offered to each student. In order to continue to carry out this program, the "Y" needs the co-operation and interest of every individual on this campus.

The Interfaith Council is an organization which provides brotherhood among the students of Woman's College.

Anne Hall acted as the president of the council this year, and working with her was Mrs. Ruth Clarke, the Director of Religious Activities. Members of the Council were representatives of the organized student religious groups on campus, which are: the Baptist, Catholic, Congregational, Disciples of Christ, Episcopal, Jewish, Lutheran, Methodist, Moravian, and Presbyterian. Also, there were accredited members of the Council representing the non-organized student groups.

Of special interest is the Religious Emphasis week in February. The program for this week is planned and presented by the Interfaith Council. Radio and television programs were given by Council members in preparation for this yearly event.

Yes, the Interfaith Council is an active and important organization which carries out its purpose in creating a better religious understanding at Woman's College.

Service League

ELIZABETH BOULUS
Chairman

"Make W. C. ring the bell" was the plea of all Service League workers as they diligently sponsored their annual Campus Purse Drive. This drive—the drive to end all drives—is conducted by the Service League in the fall of each year. This is the only time the students are asked to contribute to charity organizations, and the money is distributed to worthy organizations according to their needs. One appealing factor of this year's drive was the Faculty Bazaar.

With the world in its present state of uncertainty, the Service League, which was originated during World War II, once again fought alongside our boys—this time in Korea—by contributing unselfishly its time, energy, and money to maintain the things precious to us.

ADVISORY GROUPS

The Advisory Group is made up of all the committee heads and the faculty advisors. This group meets together from time to time to plan the work of the group. The committee also draws up suggestions to pass on to the next year's group. These members are appointed by the Service League Chairman.

HALL LEADERS

The Hall Board members are composed of one person from each dormitory. This group's job is to carry back to the halls the plans made by the advisory committee and to work directly with the students. This group is responsible for the success of each drive and work. These members can either be appointed or elected in each hall.

Greensboro Orchestra

DIRECTOR:
George W. Dickieson

An organization which enriches our "world in itself" at Woman's College is the Greensboro Orchestra. This group is organized so that qualified players from the community as well as students and faculty from Woman's College may be members. With George W. Dickieson as conductor and A. Hugh Altvater as concertmaster, the orchestra participates in the annual presentation of "The Messiah," in Arts Forum, and in various other performances throughout the year.

Several years ago, the orchestra membership was reduced from seventy to fifty-seven members in order that this more careful selection would give a higher calibre performance.

The orchestra is a definite asset to the life of the Woman's College. Through its concerts and performances we are made aware of the beauty and richness of music. The orchestra gives each student here a marvelous opportunity to become acquainted with the great works of such masters as Handel, Schuman, and Beethoven, and to appreciate the finest in music.

W. C. Chamber Music Players

DIRECTOR:
George W. Dickieson

The Chamber Music Players, under the direction of George W. Dickieson, is composed of students who are experienced players of wind instruments.

Occasionally, this group studies pieces with use of wind instruments, but for the most part, it devotes itself to the reading and performing chamber music for strings.

They perform in conjunction with the Greensboro Orchestra and also separate from them, having appeared in many cities of North Carolina and in Virginia.

In January, the Chamber Music Players presented a program in Aycock Auditorium for the benefit of all the students.

Thus, through activities and programs such as these, this organization is contributing to the "well-roundedness" of our students and to their enjoyment as well.

Woman's College Choir

Composed of 150 girls from all classes, the choir enriches the college with its musical presentations. Under the direction of Mr. George M. Thompson, the choir performs at many campus functions—Founder's Day, chapel programs, Arts Forum, University Sermons, graduation. Every year, attired in robes of red and white, they begin our holiday observance with their Christmas concert which draws capacity audiences. Varied carols and hymns from all parts of the world are presented. Vocal solos by members of the choir and instrumental accompaniment by guest performers add to the richness of the program. The theme of beauty of Christmas is tenderly and appropriately summarized in the final selections, Stille Nacht, which is softly sung in German.

MR. TAYLOR TALKS TO HARVEY

Weeks filled with mystery and suspense previewed the arrival of a 6-foot rabbit into the Woman's College world. It was not many days after Mr. Taylor, director, accompanied Harvey to the Aycock stage in one of the Playlikers superb presentations.

SUNDAY COSTS FIVE PESOS

Freshmen rallied all over the stage at Aycock after the presentation of this one act play. Playlikers held open house back stage, refreshments and all, to introduce the catacombs of Aycock to the tenderfeet.

BURNSVILLE PLAYHOUSE

Art, drama, writing, dance, music . . . yes, all these fields can be studied at the summer playhouse called "Parkway Playhouse" up in the Carolina Mountains in Burnsville, North Carolina. Woman's College students yearly receive many hours of training and fun here.

Curtain Going Up

Lights are dimmed, the stage is made ready, and the audience is eagerly waiting for the play to begin. The place is Aycock Auditorium, and the time, eight o'clock. The play can be any one of many . . . Sunday Costs Five Pesos, Harvey, Goodby My Fancy, The Importance of Being Earnest, or one of the Arts Forum plays.

Backstage, everything is in turmoil. Mr. Taylor and Miss England are shouting last minute directions; Mr. Bowman and his crew are busily checking lighting and properties; and Mr. White is prayerfully hoping that every seat will be taken. The cast are nervously biting their fingernails and adding the finishing touches to their costumes; but at the stroke of eight, the Playlikers go on the stage, and the play begins.

To be a Playliker one has to have interest in dramatics, willingness to work, a love for Aycock, and blue jeans. She has to give up many of those week-end dates, trips to Carolina, or cokes in the Soda Shop. She practically has to dedicate every one of her free minutes to Aycock. Those who do work hard are rewarded, however, for the Playlikers who do outstanding work technically and dramatically are tapped in Masqueraders. The officers of Masqueraders this year were Bette Barksdake, President; Jean Satterthwaite, Vice-President; and Bobbie Fisher, Secretary-Treasurer.

Another reward for some lucky Juniors or Seniors who have earned the required number of points by their participation in all phases of theater, is membership in the Alpha Psi Omega, National honorary dramatic fraternity. This fraternity is represented on this campus by the Zeta Omega cast which had as its president, Corinne Bissette.

Those who are Playlikers are proud of their positions, for they are the only ones who really know how much actual labor goes behind one of their productions. But the work does not seem to be work to them, for they are in love with the theater.

"W. C., a world in itself" was the theme that Jackie chose for the 1952 Pine Needles, and with enthusiasm and hard work, she set out to make this year's book one that all of you would be proud to own. The art staff worked hard to carry out the theme in their drawings, and the literary staff often slaved over copy until the wee hours of the morning. All of us attempted to make Pine Needles portray life on the campus of Woman's College so that years after graduation your memories of college days would still live.

Many times the staff did not only have to fight deadlines; they had to battle the elements as well. This was very evident the day that it rained just as the freshman pictures were being taken. Nevertheless, the work did go on—unfamiliar faces were identified, proof was read, and typing done.

Meanwhile, Jane and her crew of busy beavers had not been idle. They had been diligently seeking advertising managers and collecting ads so that Pine Needles could stay out of the red.

Finally, after much hair pulling, gnashing of teeth, and much general disorder, the last deadline was met and the book was in the hands of the printer. We waited eagerly for its return, and now we give it to you. It is our hope that as you turn through its pages the world of W. C. will unfold before you.

If you should happen to wander behind the Alumnae House some bright spring day and see a group of dejected girls crawling one by one through the window, don't be alarmed, it will simply be the departing Seniors and the old officers of the Carry staff. If we could peep into the minds of these girls, we would probably find that they were thinking something like this:

"Could we ever forget the Wednesday night make-up 'til 3:00 A. M. . . . the undiluted filth in the Carry offices . . . the only way we could ever clean the place would be to use a shovel . . . dear Mr. Wilkie and his flash that never went off . . . coffee-hour for Carl Sandburg when we used the kitchen behind James' back . . . the policeman who escorted us home after we finished late at night; he never forgot the Carry . . . the birth of new ideas in the office; parties. Social Science Forum cuts, new headlines, the world news column; we felt a real need to go beyond our campus . . . the chief grief of a paper, ads . . . our yearly wastebasket bonfire . . . the wildest time of the year when the forum rolled around; rushing here to interview one person, rushing there to interview another . . . extra pages, extra work . . . our desire for a stove for that early morning coffee . . . Chancellor Graham who seemed a part of our office . . . the hysterical misprints, such as the time "World News in Brief" came back to us. "World News in Grief," and compliments of the "Daily Tarheel Staff" . . . could we ever forget Mr. Wilkie's "George"; may he never die . . . the hustle, the bustle, the enormous bags under our eyes, the frantic search for an article to fill a vacant space, the late hours and hard work that make up W. C.'s Carolinian . . . could we ever forget?"

Any member of Coraddi staff will tell you that getting out four issues a year is no small task. The fiction and art editor have the not-quite-sedentary occupation of rounding up material from would-be contributors who are remarkably shy about submitting their masterpieces. The feature editor must decide on material for two or three features, assign it, and extract the finished products before deadline. The business manager's task includes securing all the advertising to be used in the next issue. These are only a few of the myraid things to be done to get one issue out. The laboring editor has the job of seeing that everything gets done on schedule.

Margaret and her staff have done a fine job this year. It has been a memorable year for Coraddi. As always, there is the heartfelt cry from the students, "Please, Coraddi, give us material we can understand!" And the equally heartfelt response from the staff, "Please, students, give us material!"

The Recreation Association places emphasis on a sport for every occasion and a sport for every girl. Through their cabinet made up of sports heads and club presidents, they determine the advancement and proceedings of recreation for the entire college.

This year they expanded the council to include all dorm representatives as non-voting members. This action increased the width of association and expanded the activities to every corner of the campus. Any residence hall may now offer suggestions to the association through their representatives even though they are not members of the physical education department.

Play With The R. A.

They say its easier this way.

Pepper Neal goes in for a "Lee Terrell steal play."

The new gym rings with yells of "Strike!"

Barbara can't miss the gold in that position.

Carolyn Birgel is behind the eight ball now.

Every girl is yearly offered the invitation to "play with R. A." Translated this means that the Recreation Association is ready and eager to take care of anyone who has a yearning to play and play.

1952 found the R.A. going sportier than ever before. Freshmen were ushered into the gayer side of camp life with series of supper trips to the Freshmen R. A. Camp. The annual arts forum brought a hurried week to the dance majors. Then the crowning glory of Gym Meet and the big, big surprise.

As if one year could hold any more on its program, the new gym burst forth, and the R. A. found itself sponsoring sports it hardly dared dream of before—roller skating and bowling.

To join your R. A. does indeed mean that life is not all work, but part-time play.

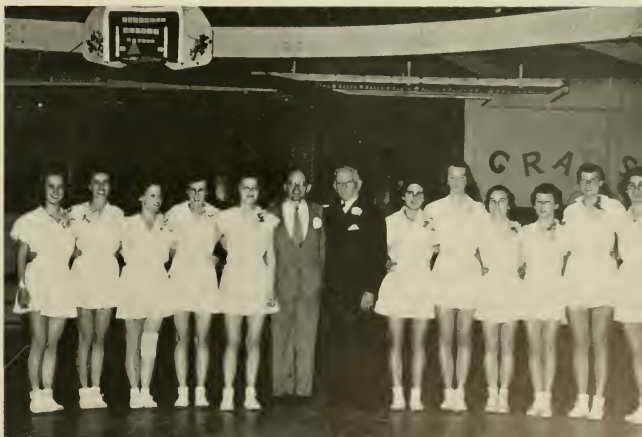

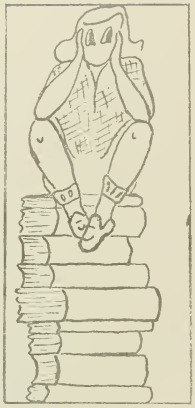

Curtain going up on the Modern Dance.

Dr. Graham and Dr. Jackson share honors at last year's gym meet.

. . . One More Year To Go

Some of us came a week early in the fall with the freshmen and used our knowledge and worldliness—acquired during two years of orientation at W. C.—to guide our new sisters over boards, around fences, and over walls to their countless meetings. We began to feel at last as if we were coming into our own. The vice-president of our class served as president of the freshman class until they elected their officers in December. We chose a chairman and began hard work on the annual Junior Show which proved to be a tremendous success under the direction of Pat Markas. Those of us who planned to teach found ourselves snowed under by education classes and looking forward to student teaching—the unmistakable mark of an upperclassman. Our Junior year meant a lot to us and somehow when graduation time came, we were glad we would be back for another year.

"So Near... Yet So Far"

Pat Markos and committee chairman hold confab for Junior Show.

Two years behind us and we were back with six months of age on our navy class jackets . . . walking blisters on our feet as advisors to the freshmen and proud as punch to show off the new library and Home Ec. building . . . more buildings sprouting up to keep that cluttered look on campus we'd be lost without . . . our rings at last on 3rd fingers right hand . . . sitting downstairs middle in Aycock for chapel . . . beginning to think that maybe the walls around the library don't look so bad after all . . . getting dance programs for our "Formal" and thrilling to Burt Massengill while "smoke got in our eyes" . . . practicing for the Junior Show and being sure that ours would be the best yet . . . worrying about exams as usual but suddenly realizing that our courses really meant something to us . . . Spring with elections and our class stepping into the lime-light . . . our first Junior-Senior . . . watching May Court and knowing one of us would be its queen next year . . . running like forty for the front chapel seats but missing the black jackets after they had filed out . . . asking, "What is the best class at W. C.?" and announcing with all our hearts, "It is the class of '53" . . . because that's us . . . and we're almost there!

Ann Bailey, Freshman, will never get anywhere with these directions for the Junior Advisors.

Our Dr. Emma Layman, always available.

. . . A CHANGE OCCURS

Sonia Augstadt and Glenna Byrd plan the best project ever.

In 1950 . . . We were the Daisy Chain.

We'll seek in all the years to come...

Yes, we're the Class of '52; and Spring came this year before we even realized that we were sitting in the front seats during Chapels. May Day plans and a member of our class was May Day Queen. How could it have happened so fast? We were so busy trying to find enough credits to graduate and making trips to Dr. Hunter's office that when the reality hit, it was too late.

Three other years before we had listened and watched the Phi Beta Kappa chapel program and were impressed, but the nostalgia was almost overpowering when we saw people we knew being elected to the highest and oldest honorary fraternity in the nation. And Golden Chain; people who for years had been working without recognition and then they too were part of the golden chain of leadership, scholarship, service, tolerance, magnanimity, judgement, and character. This was our class, born in the midst of a depression, raised during a world war, and facing the biggest complexity of mankind. We were tempted to stay and retreat from the confused; but our upbringing had been on a new theory of independence and individuality so we took our front row seats at the last mass meeting to take the back row seats in the biggest mass of eternity.

We gained a diploma, a degree, yes. But so much more. There can be no degree awarded to match the friendships, happinesses, quiet moments and the awing awareness of being a member of a world full of learning.

Leadership • Scholarship • Service • Tolerance

GOLDEN CHAIN

Membership in this honorary society is based on the consideration of the qualities of leadership, scholarship, service, tolerance, magnanimity, judgement, and character. These characteristics form the links of the golden chain.

With service as its main function, the organization operates a "poster exchange" between the three schools composing the Greater University, and its members serve as ambassadors at large to high school girls of North Carolina. The group works closely with the Alumnae Association and the Public Relations Office to keep the public and the Alumnae of the Woman's College informed of what activities keep the present students busy.

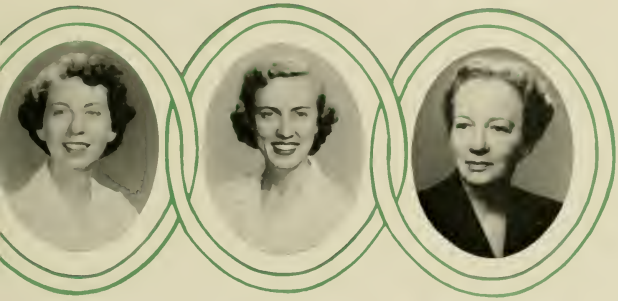

Golden Chain was organized to replace Who's Who in American Colleges on this campus and to precede the establishment of Mortar Board. It strives to emphasize service and this year was influential in presenting the annual impressive Thanksgiving chapel program.

Miss Ellen Griffin, Miss Bernice Draper, and Dr. Hollis Rogers can point with pride to the Golden Chain. And, Golden Chain can point with pride to their Honorary Members: Mrs. Julius Cone, Dr. Walter C. Jackson, Mrs. Betty Jester, Miss Katherine Taylor, Dr. Edward K. Graham.

"...And Now At Last"

It began in September, just as other years . . . but this year was different for the Seniors . . . and if we tried to ignore that feeling of finality about even the most usual, ordinary events, it was because we had suddenly realized that before long those ordinary events would be cherished memories. Next September we will be finding our way around a larger campus . . . one not so familiar as that of Woman's College . . . one where all of us will live, for the rest of our lives. In so many little things, we have discovered the wisdom of our professors and counsellors . . . the thoughtful guidance which has made the Seniors of '48 the Seniors of '52.

Our last long holidays took on a special significance . . . at Thanksgiving, at Christmas, we questioned silently: Where will next year find us? . . . The election of our May Queen, our choice of class mascots . . . our plans for the Senior Ball . . . and we began slowly to think of that last triumphant semester, still ahead.

The new year dawned, our year of promise . . . the year of graduation, the commencement of our lives . . . and on the campus, the spring elections began to be held . . . the rising Senior class stood ready to build upon what we had helped to create . . . we were being interviewed for jobs, planning June weddings . . . the Senior Show more than gratified our pride in our class . . . and at last, we sat for our final exams . . . a little startled to see the younger classes packing up to go home, as we had done, not so long ago . . . Commencement week-end . . . and class day on a memorable Saturday afternoon . . . the Senior Ball, when some of us especially missed the fellow in Korea, or San Francisco, or Germany, or Fort Mead, or Japan . . . the Baccalaureate Sermon, and the deepening solemnity and importance of our approaching commencement became a part of our every thought . . . the final bright morning: June 2. Our loved ones, happy in our success . . . and us, with mixed emotions, knowing that this year, now but six months before us, will be ours to live in the tradition of our Woman's College. As this year fades in reality, it will live in our memories, its lessons becoming our life-time guides.

DAY at W. C.

With the coming of spring, the gentle breeze and blossoming trees always bring to mind the approaching of the May Day festival. This age-old holiday took its origin in England long ago, but its celebration is ever new in the minds of the merry-makers. The custom was observed this year at Woman's College with more than its usual high colored pomp and excitement. Making it more than just a holiday, the committee extended a cordial invitation to parents of the students, and to add more festivity they executed a reunion of the W. C. alumnae—a day to long be remembered.

The faculty and the student body joined wholeheartedly to make the entire day a tremendous success. Open houses, reception, dances, and the high light of the day—the presentation of the May Court were all a part of the rich entertainment afforded the eager audience.

May Day

In the early afternoon the different departments were hosts to the visitors at open house. At this time, the alumnae and visitors were shown displays in the various fields followed by tours of the new buildings.

As mid-afternoon slowly drew nigh, the crowd began to gather excitedly, impatient for the highlights of the entire occasion—the presentation and crowning. At the hour of three the royal procession of the May Queen and her attendants proceeded to the lawn of front campus adorned with clusters of spring flowers. There, the Queen was crowned in a halo of beauty before an awe-struck audience.

The party then immediately recessed to the stage of Aycock auditorium where the Queen was seated on an exalted throne with her court and mascots in stair-step fashion at either side. Before her, the four societies presented the May Day program.

A tea dance and reception followed in the new gymnasium; and the final curtain was drawn with the Junior-Senior formal given that night.

1952 . . . Our year is fading and as we walk into Aycock we see our world spread before us—in a slow evaluating way as though we were trying to soak up every corner which is ours now to remember.

We are soon to leave our old life and begin new and challenging opportunities in a different world—a world that will test our firm convictions which have been built during our four years at Woman's College. Yet, we leave with assurance, as well as humility, and look forward to the years ahead.

OUR ADVERTISERS

GOLD AND WHITE

There's something about Woman's College colors which serve to inspire not only the student body and faculty but also thousands who contact them.

Gold—for the hair of some but for the hearts of all who have contributed, and who will contribute increasingly, to the betterment of our state, nation, and world.

White—not for tissue pigmentation, but for unsullied minds and bodies which make such a contribution possible.

Gold and White—we salute you!

When the GREAT DAY—
your Graduation Day Arrives!

Be prepared for that eventful day. Have an Underwood Portable Typewriter ready to assist you in your future work—whatever it may be. Modern tools are "musts" for a modern world. The typewriter is a modern tool—whether used at home, office or shop.

An Underwood Portable Typewriter helps get things done—quickly and precisely. With your faithful Underwood Portable Typewriter you can see your ideas f-l-o-w onto paper.

Typewritten matter commands attention from teachers, business and professional people. It saves the reader both time and effort. It gets action—quicker. For the ambitious student of the Woman's College, an Underwood Portable will give w-i-n-g-s to your words. Yes, there's an Underwood Portable Typewriter for every typing need. Ask your Underwood Dealer to show you the Underwood "Big Three" line of portables. He'll help you make a choice of one of these fine machines made by Underwood: Typewriter Leader of the World.
